

Great man, great Buzz Haeger tag

Warren "Buzz" Haeger was a talented saxophonist and arranger for the Halls of Montezuma Marine Corps Band. He also played professionally with stars like Frank Sinatra, Mel Tormé, Bob Hope, Debbie Reynolds, the Alvino Ray Orchestra and Artie Shaw Band. In 1945, he began his 62-year Society journey, to be named to the Society Hall of Fame. He was tenor of 1965 champ Four Renegades and arranger of hundreds of songs. Here's a tag he created in 1956. ■
